MEET THE CANDIDATE

Grace Gerosa

Grace Hana Gerosa is both Korean and Italian which she likes to represent everyday through making good decisions and not forgetting what her family did for her to be able to live in Pleasantville, New York. She is effervescent, a striver and empathetic. Her goal in life is to feel and do a little bit better than the previous minute or day. She wants to contribute to a society that considers others, feels strongly and has a positive impact. Her future goals are to seek opportunities and create a meaning for every moment in life. As of now, she wants to be a lawyer and represent her people but is also open to changing that as she cultivates more passions. She has been a part of the Marlins for 10 years and has been a competitive swimmer for 12. She is a social media manager for her Varsity swim team and will be a captain in the fall for the 2024 season. She participates in peer leader and is vice president for Sources of Strength. Some of her roles consist of school tours, therapy dog sessions, orientation, drug prevention activities, stress relief group discussions and study skills. She uses her voice to represent her school through the Youth Leadership Task Force. She also uses her voice to represent the Boys and Girls Club in Albany for NYS Alliance Legislative Day. As part of the National Honors Society and Social Studies Honor Society, she sponsors many events and creates a voice for the importance of education to help with big campaigns like mental health and food scarcity. During the summers, she lifeguards and is a camp counselor at horseback riding camp. She volunteers at Fox Hill Farms by cleaning stalls, tacking up horses, facilitating camp activities and organizing.
