

Judy Siegel

SENIOR STAFF ATTORNEY
PRO BONO PARTNERS

Judy Siegel, Senior Staff Attorney (New York Office), provides direct legal services to nonprofit organizations in New York and Connecticut, recruits and coordinates volunteer attorneys to assist Pro Bono Partnership's clients, conducts outreach to nonprofit organizations in New York and Connecticut, and presents legal workshops on topics relevant to nonprofit executives and board members.

Judy has worked in private practice at Weil, Gotshal & Manges, Tenzer Greenblatt (now Blank Rome LLP) and Kittay & Gershfeld, P.C. She also served as the Assistant Attorney General in Charge of the Westchester Regional Office of the New York State Attorney General's Office. Judy is currently the Chair of the New York State Bar Association's Nonprofit Law Committee. Judy has served on several boards of directors, has taught mock trial at a local high school, lectured on various topics at SUNY Purchase, and coached a recreational basketball team. Judy continues to work with all of the B'nei Mitzvot students at her synagogue helping them study torah and write their sermon. Judy is admitted to the bar in New York and Connecticut. She is a graduate of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and Boston University Law School.

