

Wendy Aglietti

COMMUNITY VOLUNTEER

Wendy Aglietti is a private foundation administrator and has been an office manager, nonprofit board member and board chair. She graduated from Boston University with a B.A. in Sociology and a minor in Economics. Wendy began her career as a personnel consultant in the Information Technology sector and went on to become the Operating and Financial Officer at Roma Design of White Plains, a designer, manufacturer, importer and wholesale distributor of fashion accessories.

Wendy has channeled her expertise and passion into philanthropy, and is experienced in all things related to the nonprofit world. She is especially passionate about high quality education and experiences for youth as they are the future.

SPONSORED BY TOYOTA KOHL'S

Mondelēz